Editors' Take

Valerie Grant has the popular Modern Farmhouse and Coastal aesthetics down to a T. Her background in luxury fashion has trained her eye for detail, while experience with interior design clients has taught her how to craft homes that are comfortable and suitable for everyday living.

About

Principal designer Valerie Grant spent 15 years as a professional in the fashion industry, working for luxury brands including Prada, Ralph Lauren, Barney's New York, and Coach. Our approach to home design has its underpinnings in the modes of dressing—designing spaces by building and layering, mixing textures and patterns, creating contrasts and complements, adding accents of color, and finally accessorizing to complete the look. Our ultimate goal is making your home the place you love to live.

Each home we design is infused with the clients' specific aesthetic and lifestyle needs. Not only is the personality of each client reflected in the design, but also the way they live. We listen to our clients' unique needs and incorporate these into two essential elements: how the home looks, and how it will function.

Our style is a mix of modern and traditional with a blend of color, pattern, texture, scale, and form to elevate the aesthetic in each space. We strive to create a final result that is personal and distinctive with a consistent style throughout making a home beautiful, comfortable, and very livable.

A home should be the place where you feel most relaxed—a haven. Using materials and furnishings that can stand up to children, pets, and entertaining is our ultimate goal.

It's all in the details. We are extremely detail-oriented not only in the way we design, but also to ensure that all aspects of the design process run smoothly. Working with architects, contractors, tradespeople and artisans, our team ensures that all design decisions are thoroughly vetted to deliver exceptional results.

Valerie Grant Interiors has been featured in several prominent publications including Elle Decor, The New York Times, Aspire, Homes & Gardens UK, and Ocean Home. We are incredibly fortunate to work with amazing clients who trust us to create a home they will love.
